

Goyanche Niz Mogi on a novel mission

HERALDREPORTER

PANJIM, APRIL 8—Goyanche Niz Mogi on Thursday said it would abstain from exposing the faults of political leaders, ministers and MLAs and would restrict itself to educating Goans on how it would strive to make Goa a better place to live in.

Addressing a press conference to announce the launching of its website, www.loversofgoa.com, GNM President James Fernandes urged wellwishers to e-mail the website address to their friends. He urged Goans living in India and abroad to contribute generously to the GNM election fund.

Fernandes said only support from people will help them as they intend to field candidates in all 40 constituencies during the forthcoming assembly elections. "We will require at least Rs 3 lakh per candidate for campaigning during election," he informed.

He said anyone who wished to contribute towards the elections fund or seek more details could e-mail isgnmjuly4@yahoo.com or telephonically contact at 176, Casa Rocha, Fontainhas, here on 2223739.

He further informed that GNM candidates for the elections would be informed three days before the last date of filing the nominations. I am confident that in 30-35 constituencies our candidates will throw up a good fight, he said.

Fernandes stated that the assembly elections are one thing, but they also plan to field candidates for the panchayat elections slated for May 5.

m, Monday, April 9, 2007

Goyche Niz Mogi launches website

BY A STAFF REPORTER
reporters@gomantaktimes.com

PANJIM: Goyche Niz Mogi launched its website, www.loverofgoa.com at Panjim recently.

GNM president James Fernandes called upon Goan living all over the world to email to their friends the address of the GNM website.

He also called on the Goans and well wishers settled in India and abroad to contribute generously to the GNM Assembly election fund as it intends to field candidates in all 40 constituencies.

He said that the candidates will be highly respected, honesty beyond doubt, all committed to the development and enrichment of Goa and Goans in all 40 constituencies. He also informed that the names of the GNM candidates would be declared three days before the last date of filing the nomination papers.

Fernandes also stated that in future the GNM would abstain from exposing the faults of the political leaders, ministers and MLAs and would restrict itself to educating and enlightening the Goans on how it would give a better way of life to the people, give a better standard of living to the people, increase the spending capacity of the Goans and make Goa a better place if not the best place to live in.